DESCRIPTION

With this exhibition, we explore the centuries-old tradition of the self-portrait. The image of self has never been so prevalent as in our current social media saturated society.

Most recently during our time of “Shelter in Place” we have had an opportunity to look inward more than ever. We have explored our identities, our passions, our hobbies, places we love, our dreams, and our daily lives. We’d like to show others who we are now.

Our Juror:

Stephen Magnum is a contemporary realist painter from San Francisco. Born in 1954 in Mississippi and a graduate of the San Francisco Art Institute, he works out of studios in Sausalito and Geyserville, California. Known primarily for his large-scale portraits, his works have been juried into and won awards in numerous national and international competitions and exhibitions as well as featured in art journals and other publications. A member of the Portrait Society of America, the International Guild of Realism and the National Oil and Acrylic Painters Society, his paintings are in private and corporate collections across the
